

Regulations of the training/ online training

1. The Company/Participant is obliged to read the regulations prior to attending the training.
2. Sending the online form/ the form by e-mail to the e-mail address indicated on the organizer's website/by post to the correspondence address indicated on the organizer's website/by FAX constitutes conclusion of the agreement and obligation to pay.
3. The cost of participation along with information about the services included in the price is available in the training offer.
4. All prices quoted in the training offer are net prices to which 23% VAT is added.
5. Five days before the start of the training, information about the training, i.e. confirmation of the training, organizational information and request for payment will be sent to the e-mail address provided.If no information is available after this date, please call us.
10. Failure to make payment and to attend the training is not tantamount to cancellation.
11. It is possible to cancel participation in the training free of charge before receiving a confirmation from the Polish Energy Storage Association that the training will take place.
12. Cancellation of participation in the training after receipt of the confirmation from the Polish Energy Storage Association entails a 50% cost on the side of the Participant.
12. After the training is completed, a VAT invoice will be issued and sent by post or to the e-mail address provided.
13. Payments should be made to the account of the Polish Energy Storage Association after receiving a confirmation of participation in the training.
15. If the lecturer, for fortuitous reasons, is not able to conduct classes on the previously specified date, the organizer reserves the right to change the date of the classes.Class participants will be notified immediately thereof.
16. The Organizer reserves the right to cancel the training not later than 3 business days before the training due date for reasons not attributable to the Organizer.
18. Training materials provided to the training Participants are protected by copyright.Copying and disseminating them for commercial purposes is prohibited.
19. Please be informed that photographing, filming, as well as making video and audio recordings of the training is strictly prohibited.It is a serious offense to copy or attempt to copy training sessions and other materials protected by copyright and to further distribute them.Appropriate legal actions will be taken in case of violation of the above rules.
21. We would like to inform you that the controller of personal data pursuant to Article 4(7) of the GDPR is Polskie Stowarzyszenie Magazynowania Energii(Polish Energy Storage Association) with its registered office in Warsaw (04-634), ul. Michała Kajki 41/43/6.Your data will be used solely for business purposes and in connection with the processing of your order.You have the following rights:

- a) the right of access to the content of the data pursuant to Article 15 of the “GDPR”,
- b) the right to rectify data pursuant to Article 16 of the “GDPR”,
- c) the right to erasure of data pursuant to Article 17 of the “GDPR”,
- d) the right to restriction of data processing pursuant to Article 18 of the “GDPR”,
- e) the right to data portability pursuant to Article 20 of the “GDPR”,
- f) the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Office for Personal Data Protection regarding violation of the right to personal data protection or other rights granted under the GDPR.